Internship Grant

ASEEES' Internship Grant Program provides MA, PhD, and professional school students and recent graduates (i.e. those who have graduated no more than two years prior to the competition deadline) with grants that make it possible for them to accept unpaid or underpaid internships in areas broadly related to Russia, including Russia's relations with other regions/countries. These internships must be in the US and should be substantial in duration and responsibilities (20-25 work hours per week), lasting two months for summer internships and four months for semester internships. The grant offers $2,000 a month, to be paid directly to the grantee (intern) during their internship.

Mutual Aid Grant

Developments in recent years have highlighted the financial precarity confronted by many of our colleagues in Slavic, East European, and Eurasian Studies. For contingently-employed graduate students and faculty instructors in the SEEES field, the impacts of institutional austerity, rising living costs and other economic factors are particularly acute, warranting active intervention. To support contingent faculty and graduate student members based in the US with urgent financial need, ASEEES has established a small mutual aid grant program in collaboration with the Working Group for Solidarity in Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies, an ASEEES affiliate organization.

To apply for financial assistance, please complete the online application, available on the ASEEES website, by the deadlines of either March 1 and September 1. Applicants will be eligible to apply for up to $250, with grants disbursed on a first-come, first-served basis for each application round. Applicants may receive the mutual aid grant once.

Help us sustain this program by donating to the Mutual Aid Fund HERE.

Dissertation Research Grants

ASEEES Dissertation Research Grants (DRGs) support doctoral dissertation research in Eastern Europe and Eurasia in any aspect of Slavic, East European, and Eurasian studies in any discipline. Graduate student of any citizenship, in any discipline currently enrolled in a PhD program in the United States (and for the Bailey Dissertation Research Grant, in the US and Canada) may apply.

In Spring 2024, ASEEES is delighted to launch the James Bailey Dissertation Grant in Folklore Studies, thanks to the generous endowed gift from Professor Natalie Kononenko, Kule Chair Emerita in Ukrainian Ethnography at the University of Alberta.

Thanks to the generous gifts from ASEEES members and other donors, we offer specialized grants in the following subjects (applicants' research projects need not fall into the following categories in order to be eligible for a DRG):

- Dissertation Research Grant in Women and Gender Studies - open to all disciplines and geographic foci in Eastern Europe and Eurasia
- Dissertation Research Grant in LGBTQ Studies - open to all disciplines and geographic foci in Eastern Europe and Eurasia
- Joseph Bradley and Christine Ruane Dissertation Research Grant in Russian Studies - open to all disciplines and any aspect of Russian studies broadly defined
- Maya K. Peterson Dissertation Research Grant in Environmental Studies - open to all disciplines, geographic foci in Eastern Europe and Eurasia and any aspect of environmental studies broadly defined
- Dissertation Research Grant in Ukrainian Studies - open to all disciplines and any aspect of Ukrainian studies broadly defined and NEW in 2024

- James Bailey Dissertation Research Grant in Folklore Studies - open to all disciplines and any aspect of Folklore studies, broadly defined; open to PhD students in Canada

Summer Dissertation Writing Grants

Thanks to the generosity of donors and members, the Association for Slavic, East European, and Eurasian Studies is offering a limited number of grants, with a maximum stipend of $6,000, for the purposes of summer dissertation writing on any aspect of Slavic, East European, and Eurasian studies in any discipline. The writing grant program is directed at PhD students at US universities who do not qualify for the ASEEES Dissertation Research Grant because they do not intend to conduct research in the region.
